

Educators Rising Arizona Official Dress Code

At ALL times during any Educators Rising event, students, teacher leaders, and guests should adhere to the following dress code. This dress code will be STRICTLY enforced at all EdRising Arizona events. Participants who are not in appropriate dress code will NOT be allowed to participate, compete, be allowed into any general session, and will not be allowed on stage (no refunds will be given if students are turned away for dress code violation).

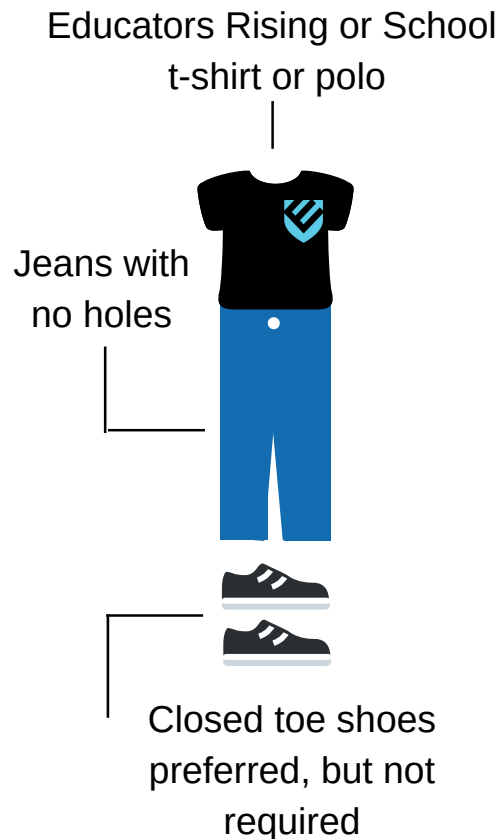

Professional Dress

At ALL times during any Educators Rising event except when casual dress is allowed. AT MINIMUM, you should wear the following:

Casual Dress

At no time during conference hours should members be in casual dress, unless clearly specified in the program.

STOP! Remember that conference name badges are part of the dress code and MUST BE WORN at ALL conference functions.

General Guidelines for Dress Code

- Rising Educators should adhere to the dress code at all times from beginning to end of any event.
- This is inclusive of opening and closing ceremony at conferences, competitive events, and at any event where they are representing EdRising (chapter visits, presentations, speaking arrangements).
- Rising Educators should be in casual dress only when a program or agenda directs them to do so.
- Failure to comply with the EdRising Arizona dress code will result in non-participation with no refund.
- Hairstyles and clothing must be professional and presentable.
- All teacher leaders/chaperones/guests are required to adhere to the same dress code as the students.
- Rules for every dress code category:
 - Jeans cannot have holes.
 - Closed toe shoes preferred but not required. No flip-flops.
 - No tank tops, spaghetti straps, Spandex, or shirts that expose the stomach.
 - No tight-fitting or revealing clothing.
 - No hats or beanies.
 - Nothing with offensive or rude language or images.
 - No sheer or see-through blouses. No undergarments can be showing.
 - If in doubt, leave it at home.
 - No more than a 2 inch heel for dress shoes

POOL ATTIRE: If a swimming pool, Jacuzzi, sauna, etc., is available for student use, the following dress is appropriate ONLY when traveling to and from and when using such facilities: robe, cover-up, or t-shirt with shorts over swimsuit, swimming suit, shoes or sandals. No thong swimsuits. NOTE: Under NO circumstances are students permitted in the hotel lobby or in any other portion of conference facilities or surrounding area in their pool attire.

If you have to question what you wear, then it is inappropriate. Members and chapters will not receive warnings at an EdRising Arizona event. You will be sent out of your competition or session immediately and not allowed to return. If you have a question about the dress code, please contact the EdRising State Advisor at director@edrisingaz.org
